Headmistress' Address

Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart and I thank those of you who have left footprints in mine. I wish each and every one of you contentment as your future unfolds. Each of us seeks happiness in our lives and to achieve that goal it is important to live simply; to free our minds from worries; to hold no hatred in our hearts, and to give more and expect less. To the Class of 2008, you have been a wonderful group of students and each of you has benefited in different ways from your Sacred Heart experience. Take care of yourselves, and we look forward to your visits at the City House.

May there always be work for your hands to do.
May your purse always hold a coin or two.
May the sun always shine upon your window pane.
May a rainbow be certain to follow each rain.
May the hand of a friend always be near to you.
May God fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.

Elaine Brooks
Headmistress

Administration: The Directors

Dear Class of 2008,

The past five years have been for all of you a wonderful adventure. You have formed and nurtured lasting friendships, discovered hidden talents, and experienced moments of elation and dejection, confidence and self-doubt. Every experience has been a preparation for the new adventure that awaits you as you leave Sacred Heart. The path you follow will not be straight, and you cannot know at the beginning where it will lead you; but keep your hearts and minds open to all good possibilities. As Ralph Waldo Emerson once wrote, "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

Jean Filipovich, Assistant Headmistress

Dear Graduates,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the students, faculty and parents of the Sacred Heart School of Montreal for making my last 22 years a memorable experience. My years as a teacher, coach and administrator have been filled with numerous highlights which I will take with me. To the class of 2008, I will always remember you as "the class that I finally graduated with." Good luck in your future endeavors and you never know when our paths will cross again.

Peter Kousik, Director of Studies

Dearest Girls,

There is nothing additional to write because I've said it all many, many times. You are a unique group of girls. I am truly hopeful for the future because I have lived with you for five years. All that we try to impart is worthwhile when I stand back and watch you.

You make me very proud! I will never forget the class of 2008 and all the individuals who've touched me in such special ways. Each of you leaves "a handprint on my heart." Go now, and make a difference in the lives of everyone you meet just as you've made such a difference in mine. You are my SUNSHINE!

With much love and gratitude,

Rosanne Del Torto, Director of Students

Throughout your high school years, Sacred Heart is where you have grown, learned and matured. And just as this City House nurtured many before you and will be a second home to your sisters of the future, after you leave us for your next steps always remember the words of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow:

"Kind hearts are the gardens, Kind thoughts are the roots, Kind words are the flowers, Kind deeds are the fruits, Take care of your garden And keep out the weeds, Fill it with sunshine Kind words and kind deeds." Congratulations to each of you in the Class of 2008!

Colleen Bronson, Director of Advancement and Alumnae Affairs

Dear Graduating Class of 2008,

Remember the special times that you have experienced together at Sacred Heart; for you will be very hard pressed to match these amazing memories in the future. Those memories will be with you forever.

Take with you all the learning and important life lessons that you have absorbed at the school and always remember to stay true to yourself. I congratulate all of you and wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Harry Kalanian, Director of Finance & Facilities

THIS YEAR'S MOVIE

PRODUCERS

ADVISED BY THE FAMOUS MS. LESSEY

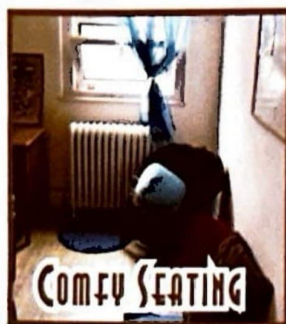

One hundred and fifty hours after school, 34 trips to Tim Hortons, 12 trees used up (and recycled), 2 white hairs grown and 1 memory book made. The memories captured are priceless. To the students, this is yours because you are the life of this school, and we have done our best to capture every moment, and for the first time, in full colour! A huge thank you to our staff for sacrificing your time to take pictures, construct layouts and keep me company. Ms. Lessey, there is no way I could even begin to imagine myself having done this without all of your dedication, help and advice. You even endured my singing, and I would like to thank you for making this book possible. To the Class of '08: I did this for you, so you could remember the laughs and the tears you had during your last year at Sacred Heart. I hope you will open up this book in years to come to enjoy it and reminisce about how Sacred girls never go out of style!

Being awarded the Millenium Scholarship was a great honour and I simply could not have done it without the help and support of Sacred Heart. Over the years, Sacred Heart has provided me with a myriad of opportunities to diversify my activities and be engaged in the community, both in and out of school. In addition to exposing students to various facts of life, the school instills in us the values and principles necessary to tackle all of life's challenges the very best we can. I feel that Sacred Heart has provided me with the courage and support necessary to apply for scholarships and participate in science fairs.

YPI GROUPS

1ST PLACE YPI GROUP

This year in religion, all Sec. IVs completed a group project known as the Youth Philanthropic Initiative, or YPI. Each group, made up of four girls, chose a local charity to research and lobby for. After hours searching the internet, countless phone calls and an on-site visit, it was time to create a presentation to wow our judges and compete for $5000 for our charity. Although there were only three finalists: Dr Clown, Auberge Transition, and Tyndale House, all the YPI projects were fantastic and showed the level of dedication every YPI group had for their charity. YPI was a fun and educational project which turned us all into life-long philanthropists.

La Semaine de Français

Quatre cents ans, de quoi être fier! C'était le thème de la semaine de Français, qui débuta avec une saynète de Marie Noël, «Le sixième jour» et une pièce de théâtre de Marie Laugier, «Le chat assassiné». Le Cercle littéraire Barat commémorait le 400e anniversaire de la fondation de la ville de Québec. Les classes de français furent remplacées par des jeux et des films. Une semaine bien appréciée des élèves.

Julie Jenneau-Rollin

Julie Jenneau-Rollin is just like any other Sacred Heart girl, except for the fact that she's the young spokesperson for "Fondation des Etoiles", an organization that funds research for children's diseases.

When asked if she enjoys what she does, she said, "I like it because helping these kids means that maybe, one day, even I won't have to live with diabetes anymore. I also get to meet a lot of new people." Julie is another example of the devotion of Sacred Heart girls.

Corina Michetti and Stephanie Covello, two very talented skaters, partake in synchronized skating competitions. Participating in six competitions a year, they are constantly at the rink, practicing with their team.

In a recent competition, they placed 2nd and 4th. As Stephanie tells it, "It takes a lot of time. When it gets closer to competition we practice almost every day." It's a real commitment, but they love what they do and that's all that matters.

I first tried out for the volleyball team in September 2004. It was a "spur of the moment" decision but I actually made the team and I ended up really liking volleyball. I liked the fact that it was a team sport. I enjoyed the competitiveness of the games. That first year, we made it to the championship game, but we lost because the referee made bad calls. I never forgot the loss and I wanted to keep on playing volleyball to prove that the Saints could be the GMAA Champions. This year, it happened, the Sacred Heart Juvy Volleyball Team won the Championship game. It felt great!

What is there to say about Ms. Sarah Neeff, winner of the "Coach of the Year Merit Award"? Apart from the fact that she was a strong supporter of the Physical Education Program, she was also a competitive, adventurous, hilarious, enthusiastic and gregarious person to be with, Ms Neeff... Oh wait, I think I've answered my own question. Surrounded by loving students at the Heart, Ms Neeff showed the prerequisites required to be nominated for this outstanding award. But how does one receive this honorable prize? Well, as the recipient of this award, Ms Neeff had to be teaching in the GMAA for at least ten years, involving herself in at least two sports. Her name was thus put forth as a nomination by Mrs. Brooks, and along with another coach, the GMAA Association chose the one and only, Ms Sarah Neeff. And what a choice they made.

Sarah Neeff, who is leaving us for Miss Edgar's and Miss Cramps' School, will make a great addition to their community. They will be very fortunate to have such an outstanding individual who will contribute great things such as team spirit and her incredible passion for teaching. When asked who she would rather see win in a basketball game between Sacred and ECS, Ms Neeff replied "Well, if it was my team at ECS, then I would definitely want ECS to win. But I wouldn't mind losing to Sacred." We will miss you Ms Neeff! And remember, "SACRED GIRLS NEVER GO OUT OF STYLE!"

Sports Banquet

Our GAA Co-Presidents organized a great evening for all!

The guest speaker at this year's Sports Banquet was none other than Chris Blanchard, the Olympic Cross-Country Skier. His words of wisdom provided this year's athletes with motivation and encouragement to continue working hard.

Michelle Vokaty won the Senoir Athletic Award for the 2007-2008 school year. An MVP from every sports team was recognized. It was the perfect opportunity to have our wonderful athletes recognized for their hard work and dedication to Sacred Heart sports teams throughout the year.

Student Life

The life as a Sacred Heart student is crazy. From loads of homework, to day-to-day activities and events; I don't even know how we manage. As Sacred girls, we have always been encouraged to get involved as much as possible. Sport teams, committees, clubs - it's never ending. There is always something to do and someone in need of a helping hand. The whole year through is absolutely draining; but by the end everything is worth it. From all the hard work, the sleepless nights, the laughter and the tears, the memories gained are priceless.

GIRLS FOR THE CURE 2007

This year, $100 000 was raised for the St. Mary's Hospital Foundation. Another successful year brings us one step closer to finding a cure. Never underestimate the effects of girl power! "Baby raise money, raise money, raise more!"

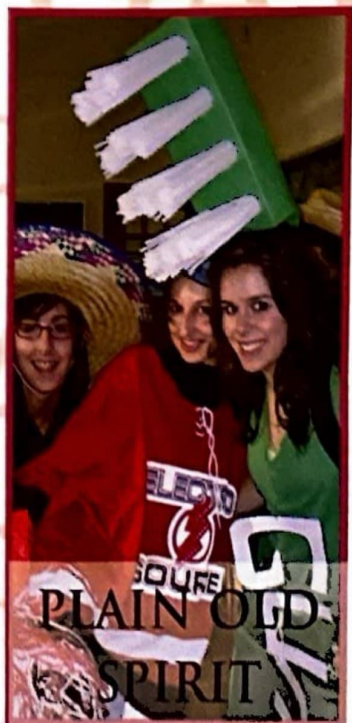

Our hearts fluttered as the butterflies were released in honour of Shelagh Coinner. We will never forget this inspirational woman who left us earlier this year. Her contribution to Girls for the Cure has been invaluable.

SPIRIT DAY CHEERLEADERS

The air was filled with fright and fun during out 2008 Spirit Day. All kinds of spirited cheerleaders roamed the halls. The whole school cheered on as the Sec Vs challenged the teachers to a game of ultimate frisbee in the gym. Give me an 'S', give me a 'P', give me an 'IRIT' ... 'GO SPIRIT!'

CHRISTMAS BASKETS

Another Christmas, another year of spreading the spirit with Christmas Baskets. Each homeroom collected food for their family and were more than generous. We have made Christmas a special time for many needy families in the Montreal area.

This year, Christmas Wishes told stories of magical elves with their poisoned cocoa, a little angel who didn't fit in and a heart-warming story showing us the importance of family. This year's theme of community was a great success. Two thumbs up!

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

2007 CHRISTMAS CONCERT IS A SUCCESS!

Another successful concert for Sacred Heart's most celebrated musicians! Ms. Martel's Vocal Ensemble sang such Christmas favourites as Do You See the Star? and the new Vocal Jazz Ensemble sang A Christmas Song. We even had the privilege to hear the Guitar Ensemble play Joy to the World. Once again, Ms. Walsh's Concert Band astounded us with Christmas Time is Here and we were pleased to hear the Junior Band play Joyful and Triumphant. We were glad to see our adorable Wooden Soldiers, led by Caitlin Kilmartin, dance for us. Even the Jazz Band made an appearance with Holiday Jam. To top it off, the ever popular Teacher's Choir entertained us with a medley of Christmas Is and The Christmas Song. This concert, featuring the Sound of Angels, was one that will be remembered for years to come.

DASHABUSTADD

Teacher Appreciation Week came to an end with once again a very extravagant show. It truly does get better every year. The skit combined elements from our favourites: The Breakfast Club, Napolean Dynamite, Mean Girls and many more. All of the dancers and singers were exceptionnally talented. And how funny was the Spice Girls finale? Afterwards, Alexandra English delivered her very touching vice-president's speech. It even made some of the Secondary Vs tear up. Congratulations to everyone who was in the show and a big thank you to Ms. DelTorto and Ms. Arseneault for making this year's Dashabustadd possible!

CANDIDS

Teachers, you put the leader in cheerleader, and for that we love you.

...CANDIDS

The Comedy of Love and War

The ever-popular City House Players, directed by Ms. Arsenault, presented The Comedy of Love and War. The Players, all Secondary V Drama elective students, once again exceeded our expectations. This production was one not to be missed.

THE CITY HOUSE PLAYERS

Arts Festival

Strawberry Fields Forever

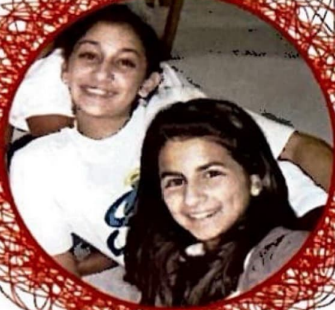

This year's Arts Festival brought us across the border to New York City. We were able to visit the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA), Clementine, and Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum. Without leaving the comfort of the Reception Room, we were brought to Central Park and the Central Park Zoo; we saw Madison Square Garden; we took a walk down Wall St and were enchanted by the sights and sounds of Broadway. A huge thank you to Ms. Gendron, Ms. Harris, the Art Committee and all of the talented artists.

WELCOME TO NEW YORK

Secondary I Retreat

FAMILY

Our secondary two retreat was a wonderful experience. We analyzed the concept of good and evil. We also watched a very cute movie about ghosts that watch over a little boy. It was inspirational and taught us that everyone has a purpose in life.

Bernice Law & Emily Pimentel

Sec. II Retreat

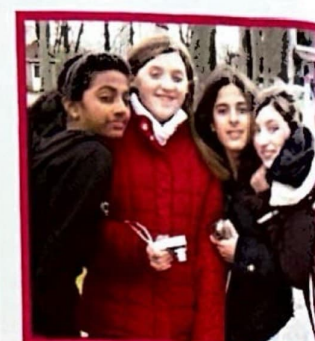

"This retreat was a blast! We were able to make many new long lasting friendships, and learn more about each other!"

—Adrienne Silva

The Miracle That is You

"The child must know that she is a miracle, that since the beginning of the world there hasn't been, and until the end of the world there will not be, another child like her."

- Pablo Casals

Sec III Retreat

"I think that I'm God's instrument - that He's gonna use me to carry out His plan."

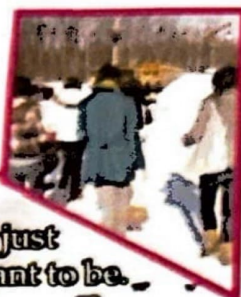

- Simon Birch

SEC IV RETREAT

I've always thought of myself as a house. I was always what I lived in. It didn't need to be big. It didn't need to be beautiful, it just needed to be mine. I became what I was meant to be.
I built myself a life. I built myself a house.

Regardless of the one-day delay at the airport, this year's trip to Italy was amazing! We enjoyed the fine taste of Italy's culture, and especially the pizza and Bacio gelato. Many Italian and Spanish boys were met, and much bonding was done late at night in our cozy hotel rooms. Some favourite stores were Carpisa, Miss Sixty and Intimissimi. We even got to see the Coliseum and statue of David. Thanks to Mme. Mauri and Ms. Gendron for being the best tour guides we could have asked for.

Five years already! All my friends, you are amazing. You've all given me the best memories anyone could ever ask for. Lunch Table '08, you girls are like sisters, I love you & thank you. Cardz bff, I'll miss you. Grads of '08, this is it; we made it.

MLT: show up at her own wedding wearing a mini skirt.

Melissa Ariganello

Congrats to the class of '08! Mom & Dad thanks for all your support and love given to me throughout my high school years. To all the teachers, thank you for your guidance. "The future is a convenient place for dreams." Anatole France - La Vita Bella -

MLT: get married to Orlando Bloom, and bring back The O.C.

Lia Asquini

Has it been five years already? I will never forget all the amazing memories: laughs in French class, vball gold, Stratford, lunch conversations, forked pizza... Thanks to all my friends JB, AE, MV, TS, MR, CC, SD and many more. I love you all. You guys made it great!

MLT: try to become a model but be rejected because her IQ is too high.

Amanda Aziz

Congratulations Grads of '08! Mom, Dad, Tiff, Mike thanks for the support. ES for life. To all my close friends, you know who you are. "Through the good, the bad, the ups and the downs I'll still be here for you." EH+LC=sisters for life. MS Big Bro for life. WE MADE IT!

MLT: get arrested for stalking Beyoncé, and yell at the officer "But I don't get it!"

Graduates: The Stars of 2008

Samantha Backman

Perversely, part of me wishes to stay here yet part of me can't help but be anxious for the future and my endeavours. To my teachers and peers, whose support, lessons and memories are invaluable as I set out on the journey of life, thank you and I'll miss you.

MLT: go trick-or-treating until she's 92.

MLT: work in a candy store, eat all the sweets herself, & easily convince her boss the candy was stolen.

Kerry Blake-Savery

Wasn't it just yesterday that I walked through those famous Penfield doors? Great times: vocal, retreats, trip to Ottawa (during the farmer's protests), Stratford (oh the memories made at the Festival Inn!), and Toronto ... it rocked. A special thanks to mom, dad and my fellow grads. I couldn't have done it without you!

MLT: fall off the face of the earth by defying gravity, write a sequel to Wordly Wise and live in a tree top loft.

Chelsea Brossard

Thanks mom, dad & Sarah for putting up with me! TLC4LIFE CD AH SC TP LS: you are unforgettable, you guys are like sisters & complete me. Congrats on finally unbuttoning those colored shirts & facing the scary life that lies beyond those Dr. Penfield doors!

MLT: show up late with wet hair to her own Hello Kitty themed wedding, walk down the aisle to the O.C theme songs, and sneeze during the "I do's."

Graduates: The Stars of 2008

Pamela Caccese

Whatever way our stories end I know you have rewritten mine by being my friend. Once upon a time, I was a confused kid who wore polo shirts with ties. It's been five years since then and they've been fantabulous. Thanks everybody. I'll love you, always and forever. <3

MLT: direct, score and star in her own musical, all about math... after having married a monk.

Laurinda Caporuscio

Five years have passed so quickly. I have met so many amazing friends throughout these years and I've known some of you for even longer. Mom, Dad, Kevin, thank you for everything. I love you so much. Congratulations Grads of 2008!

Jessica Popovic

Grads of '08, we made it! I wouldn't have been able to get through this without my awesome friends, OD KB SB ET BD SC. You made these years so much fun! I would have gone insane (or sane) without you! Thank you to my teachers, and my family-I love you.

MLT: be called in an emergency, but never answer her phone.

Karimab Rabman

These were the best & worst years of my life, where friendships were formed to last forever. I thank Allah for everything given to me. Big up to my peeps SDG, LD, JB, SB, CD, CR, PC, FL, MR, EJ. I couldn't have done it without you guys. Our crew was the best Windies.

MLT: marry a ghetto, religious Indian playing for the West Indies cricket team & raise 10 respectable Muslim children and live in the sickest cribs in Guyana and Trinidad.

Katbarine Reusch

So it begins, the rest of our lives. To my family-I couldn't have done it without you; thank you for believing in me. Ang & G-through the good times, rough times, every time. Chlo-since day 1. JBK-mornings. To the family I chose, "I owe it all to you..."

MLT: kill every joke. No? No? Oh, ok.

Marianne Roaldi

Time definitely went by fast. Thanks for all your support, Maman and Papa. I love you. I'll always miss Sacred and the class of '08. I'll never forget the carpooling days and all the laughs. Thanks to all my friends for the amazing memories. We made it! xox MLT: still be working on her entrée as the dessert is served at her wedding.

Alessandra Ruffolo

Five awesome, fun filled years together went by too fast! Thanks for all your love and support mom, dad, Mario & Angelo. Sam, Cass, Kayla, I love you guys. You made the years so special! Thank you to all teachers and staff! Congrats 5s, I love you all. WE DID IT!!

MLT: convince everyone that her hair is dark brown.

Chloe-Lynn Russo

The memories I take from Sacred will last a lifetime. Thanks to my friends, we shared great times. To my teachers, my sincere gratitude. Mom & Dad, thank you for your love & support. Chelsea, I loved sharing Sacred with you! Class of 2008, dream big!

MLT: write a bestseller that is turned into a blockbuster film where she acts with Johnny Depp.

Graduates: The Stars of 2008

Lauren Santin

To all my girls, we finally made it! Mom, Dad, Mark, I couldn't have done it without your support! TLC for life baby! CB-my other half, TP-11 years, AA-I love you to death. To all my friends, you're amazing, I love you! Grads of '08, we made it baby!

MLT: dye her hair every colour of the rainbow & go back to blonde, all the while flirting with her gay hairdresser.

Teresa Sweet

Whew! Five years packed with good and hard times and we're finally here! Thanks so much to all my friends for spicing life up and being there with me the whole way. To the Grads: follow your dreams and reach for the sky, we can do this!

MLT: take days off work to watch Michael Jackson's music videos and memorize all the steps.

Elizabeth Tomaras

Five years and we did it. Eri, my other half, my person, my best friend. Strawberry fields forever. Everyone else, you know exactly who you are, you made it all worthwhile and of course, my family. You're all brills. You know you love me.

MLT: live a glamorous life and have a closet full of Heatherette dresses.

Alessandra Traversari

No matter who we become or where we go we will always be as close as sisters. LK, BB; together forever. Mom, Dad I love you. We've all shared so many amazing memories that will never be forgotten. Grads of '08, we did it!

MLT: die of laughter. Literally.

Eva Tsaousakis

The memories created in this school will stay with me for many years. I thank my teachers who have contributed to my education. To my friends, KB, SB, JP, OD, BD, SC, I will never forget the good times we have had. I love you all & I'll be waiting for the day Sam & her army of killer squirrels take over the world!

MLT: take a year off school and go to metal shows.

Alexandra Uva

Dear Grads of '08, the last five years have been a blast! Undergrads: enjoy it while it lasts. I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend SHSM. I'll always remember the ladies I graduated with. You're all stars & don't you dare forget it. <3

MLT: open a chocolate factory and then go bankrupt because she ate all the chocolate.

Graduates: The Stars of 2008

Alessia Vincelli

ID IIC IIIA IVB VC. Fate decides your destiny, but you choose your friends. I'm proud to say that I chose great friends, ones that made these 5 years filled with laughter & memories. For all the support from my family, grazie! We did it class of '08!

MLT: get really hyper in 3...2...1. NOW!!!

Michelle Vokaty

Friends are like stars, you can't always see them but they're always there. AE-I'll always remember the sailing trips, scooter rides, hockey & Stratford. JB-fab times for 12 years, Robotics & long chats. LA-Good times in Math & English. Kar-cream. Grads of '08-these memories will be cherished forever.

MLT: be a sports therapist, ride to work on her scooter and win her life on Mix 96.

Vianna Yu

Life can be hard at times, but people make it. We have been with the same people, teachers, and in the same building for five years! Congrats Class of '08! Thanks Dad, Mom, teachers, Vanessa, Ashley, Bethany, and friends for a great year! Farewell to all!

MLT: sleep through college and cluelessly find herself in university.

Gianna Zappitelli

Our journey, which seems like it started yesterday, has now sadly come to an end. Mom & Dad thanks for everything you've done for me, CP my sister, CO & AC my loves, KR dancing queen, AG superstar! OK my pumpkin, lunch table '08! Congrats girls, we made it!

MLT: break out into a song, during her wedding, while saying her I do's to her fiancé.

The power of ONE.

Surely all the Sec. Vs would agree that this year's retreat was amazing! We shared many hugs, much laughter, and lots of tears. One of the best parts was a special ceremony in the evening that touched everyone of us. There were so many great activities and surprises for the whole grade. They were two truly fantastic days that, with the help of our Blues Notes, the Grads of '08 will never forget!

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A SACRED HEART STUDENT...

1- The day begins as early as 6:00 AM for many girls.

2- Getting ready is easy, only a uniform to wear. The only downside: Doc Martens.

3- Most girls take a BMW to school: the city bus, metro and a walk up the hill.

4- A Sacred Heart student enters through the Penfield doors.

5- Until the bell rings, students (especially the Secondary Vs) relax by the lockers, eating breakfast and catching up on homework.

6- When the first bell rings, all the girls gather in the study hall for General Assembly with Ms. Del Torto. This year, the prefects organized Monday Morning Madness to cheer us up.

7- After the bell, we have 5 minutes and not a minute more to make it to our next class. We get quite a work out running up the stairs.

8- As we make our way to class, the Regulation board lets us know what is going on that day. The prefects do their best to decorate it and make it exciting.

9- Sacred Heart teachers are great, and even though the workload is huge, the classes are always enjoyable.

10- If it's a Monday, you better hurry to the dining hall to get in line for a cookie. As far as détonés go, this is the favourite snack.

11- When it's time for gym class, you better not forget your labelled uniform, and your running shoes!

12- After a gym class, it is very common to see girls fixing their hair in the (smelly) gym locker room.

13- Before every meal, we say grace all together and then enjoy our lunch at tables of 8.

14- After lunch, it is common to see girls in the library, art room, asking questions at the faculty lounge...you may even find the Secondary Vs having a party in the prefect room!

15- More classes follow after lunch, where many students work hard, while others do not...

16- The dismissal bell rings at 3:10, but for many students, the day is far from over.

17- After school activities range from detention, to Art Club, to sports teams, to visiting Ms. MacNamara on the 5th floor

18- Before leaving, every student's books are transferred to a school bag for the heavier commute home.

19- By the time the Sacred Heart girl has done her after-school activities, finished her homework, checked her Facebook and updated her iPod, it tends to be very late.

As demanding as the life of a Sacred Heart student is, it is worth it to attend such a great school with such caring teachers and the best bunch of girls you could ever find. We are taught so much more than English, Math and History, we have learned how to be better people.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS: TERESA SWEET

Prizes:

- Governor General's Medal & Parents' Guild Award for the Student with the highest Average
- Estelle Fitzgibbon Memorial Prize for highest composite average in Science

What's really special about the class of 2008 is that everyone eventually let their guard down and we grew extremely close to each other. Parting from you girls is going to be hard, but as long as we remember what we stand for, we cannot help but shine.

It is only natural that at times, we found all the work and rules tough, but this is like everything else that makes us into better people. We don't always enjoy the process, but we are always better off in the end. So whether it was trying to catch the train against all odds - carrying a heavy schoolbag and wearing Docs - or whether it was staying up all night working on our multigenre project, it was all worth it. Through all of this stress and hardship, we have learned discipline, and this will help us in the future.

To the teachers: you are the people who made us believe in ourselves. You showed faith in us even when we were on the brink of giving up. When we were discouraged because we weren't playing well on the field, you encouraged us. When we felt we could not accomplish our goals, you consoled us and motivated us to keep trying. You made us understand that anything is possible, as long as we believe in ourselves and reach for the stars. Without you, we would not have come so far in the last five years.

To the parents of the graduates of 2008: thank you for all of your love, support and understanding. Each and every one of us sitting here today could not have made it without you walking by our side the whole way. We could always rely on you being there when we needed you, whether to lend a listening ear or a comforting embrace. You were always watchful and vigilant of our well-being and we would not have grown into such confident young women had it not been for your loving advice. Thank you for your unconditional love.

To the graduates of 2008: thank you for being who you are. Even though some of you may not be happy with how you look in your grad photos, you are each beautiful and special in your own way. You are one very special group, always ready to provide a hug or a smile in a time of need. There is no support system one can have that is as consistent and as warm as the one we have right here. Now, I would like to share with you a poem that will keep you going when life challenges you:

Within our reach/ Lies every path/ We ever dream of taking/
Within our power/ Lies every step/ We ever dream of making/
Within our sight/ Lies every joy/ We ever dream of seeing/
Within ourselves/ Lies everything/ We ever dream of being -Amanda Bradley

We have been very lucky to have had each other but now it is time to walk out of those Penfield doors for the last time, proud of who we have become and ready to take on anything that comes our way. So spread your wings and fly, and remember, "Sacred girls never go out of style."

Sacred Heart has become such an integral part of each and every one of us that it is practically impossible to imagine living without it. "Is it really over already?" This thought has run through my mind numerous times these past few weeks. It is so hard to believe that this episode of our lives is actually coming to an end. Just think of it, in a matter of months, we will walk into our English class and...(drum roll please)...there will be boys sitting there! They may even be Loyola boys! The dream of every Sacred Heart girl will have come true.

Good afternoon Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Filipovich, Mr. Kousik, Mrs. Del Torto, faculty, Religious, honorable guests and fellow students/graduates. We, the graduates of 2008, are entering a new stage of our lives that is devoid of FIGAs, Décentes and DASHABUSTADDS. However, this does not mean that it is the end of everything connected to Sacred Heart. In fact, Sacred Heart has equipped us with impeccable manners, extensive knowledge, loyal friends and fond memories that will accompany us wherever we choose to go. We will never forget the fun we had "kicking the clouds away" or all the laughs and tears shared at our last Retreat. Justin, the cutest singer and guitarist ever, as well as our "card games" in Italy are also engraved in our memories forever.

The uniqueness of Sacred Heart is something else we will remember and miss. I mean, where else would we be comfortable enough to moisturize our hands with strawberry-scented cream during class? Also, where else would the teachers agree to put their reputations on the line by playing a game of Ultimate Frisbee against the Sec. Vs? (I'm still convinced that we were the true winners and that the game was so cleverly fixed that it looked like the opposing team won by a long shot.)

The reason why we were comfortable enough to sing High School Musical Songs at the top of our lungs in the hallways is because we have become a tightly-knit family and Sacred Heart has become our second home. Each one of us entered this school as one of 70 puzzle pieces, not quite knowing where and if we fit. Throughout these five years, through good and hard times, tears and laughter, successes and failures, we have come to understand that we are all part of the same puzzle and we have each found our place, snug among a group of friends. Each one of us sitting here has contributed a special part of yourself and this is what makes our puzzle such a masterpiece. Some people contributed their wit and charm while others shared their fun-loving spirit and craziness. Who could forget the Spice Girls' brilliant performance last February? And we will never forget our late-night walk in the cold to our hotel in Stratford, keeping spirits high with our medley of songs.

STACI ANGELIS

CONGRATULATIONS

Staci, we are so very proud of all your accomplishments. You always put a smile on our faces. Remember, there is nothing you can't do. "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."

We love you, Mommy, Daddy, Nicholas and Diana.

Alessandra Arduini

As you finish one chapter of your life at Sacred Heart and embark on another, we want to let you know that we are proud of you. You have matured into a wonderful young woman.

Best of luck in your future endeavors.
Love, Mom, Dad & Isabella

Cassandra D'Ambrosio

Through your hard work and dedication you have exceeded our expectations. You are truly our shining star of whom we are very proud.

Love Mom, Dad, and Catherine

After the AMASC pin ceremony, all the Sec. Vs anxiously waited on the 4th floor with Mr. Kousik, excited to find out what exactly was awaiting us at our

SEC V ENTERTAINMENT

We arrived as quickly as possible to find lots of delicious treats on our tables, as well as personalized gifts and a CD.

Teachers came to sit with us to and eat some of the desserts, while we heard a speech by Michelle Zakem.

We then enjoyed a song prepared and sung by Mr. Griffin and Ms Walsh, based on 'Green Eyes' by Coldplay. It brought tears to many of our eyes, as we realized that never again would we have such special teachers.

The Sec. IVs had also prepared their own songs for us, which made us feel very loved and sad to be leaving.

To finish off the entertainment, we watched a slideshow filled with memories from our five years at Sacred Heart.

Last but not least, all the Sec. Vs went up to the stage to sing our graduation song together for all the teachers to hear.

A very big thank you to Ms Del Torto, Ms Arseneault and all the Sec. IVs for preparing such a wonderful evening!

Forever We Will Be

It is finally time to walk our separate ways

*We will always remember our high

Sisters At The Heart

*It was not long ago
when we first walked through those Penfield doors.*

*We were younger, nervous, and excited.
As months passed, we became good friends.*

*We've had our fights and our downs
But we've also shared many good times together.*

*We never failed to help each other
When it came to Wordly Wise sentences, citizenship tests, religion assignments,

SACRED

After a long day of beautifying ourselves, the graduates of 2008 received a night of movie star treatment. The glamour began when our limos picked us up, and we attended cocktail parties with our friends, dates and family.

HEART

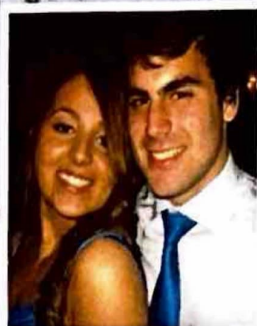

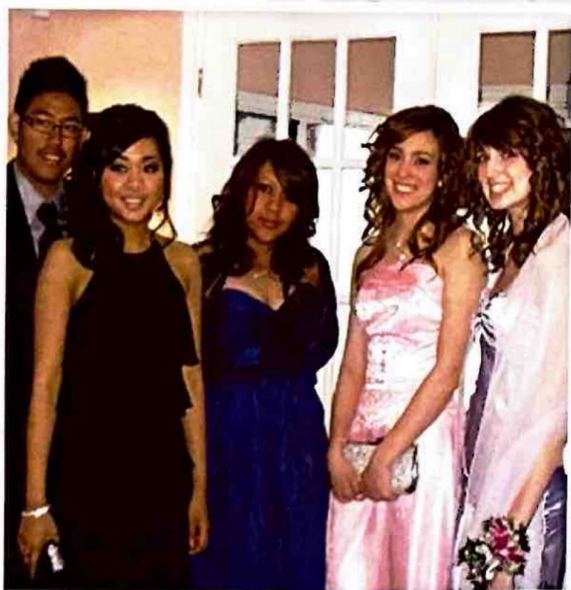

Later on, 10 white Navigators, a few black stretch limos and a Rolls Royce pulled up on Atwater to let out the stars as they entered the school on a red carpet. Here we greeted our teachers, squealed at the sight of one another and took pictures of all the Graduates.

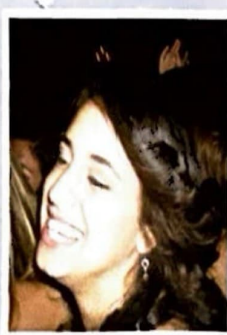

PROM NIG

Stepping out of our limos and up the steps to the Windsor Hotel was when then everyone but the Graduates were ushered into the ballroom. We were included Nars and Chanel gift bags. We reminisced, ate our delicious meal and some were brave enough to show us their moves on the dance floor. The "Kisses" and the singing of the Graduation song by all the grads in a big else we had planned. All in all, the night was one to be remembered and was the magic of the evening started. Pink cocktails were served in the hall and called in one by one to an applauding audience. More movie star treatment, and danced the night away. The teachers even made a special appearance, night sadly came to an end with the father-daughter dance to "Butterfly ciróle. We were then whisked away by our limos into the night, to whatever a great way to celebrate our high school graduation with our friends.

The final and bittersweet chapter of our lives at Sacred Heart came to an end with the 147th Graduation Ceremony, on June 1, 2008. It began when all the Graduates gathered in the Study Hall to recite a special prayer with Ms. Del Torto who then gave us each a rose. Our guest speaker, Tasha Kheriddin, the Director of the Québec et la Francophonie Fraser Institute delivered a Graduation Address reminding us that there is much hope for the future. The Graduates proudly recieved their certificates, and there was a recognition of the recipients of Academic Prizes and Special Awards. Teresa Sweet then delivered her moving valedictory address.

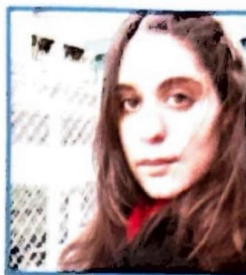

Alexandra English

We are so proud of you and everything you have accomplished during your high school years in academics, sports and overall school involvement. Congratulations to our amazing Aya! We wish you much happiness and success in the next chapter of your life.

Love, Mom, Dad, Serena and Laker

Lia D' Abate

Over the years you have blossomed into a delightful young lady. You have worked hard and accomplished much. We are proud of you and will always be there for you as you pursue your dreams.

Love Mom, Dad and Michael

Frédérique La Forge

We are proud of you and all that you have accomplished.
Bonne Chance

Love Mom, Dad,
Charles and Oliver

Congratulations Bianca Cuffaro

We always knew you could do it! But to do it with such poise, grace, unwavering determination and discipline, you are a true inspiration to everyone who meets you, especially to your family. We thank God every day for experiencing the joy of having you in our lives. Mere words cannot express how proud we are of you. Continue down the path on which you have started and the world will be your oyster, baby! Good luck and God bless.

Your loving family, Mom, Dad, Anthony and Kiarra

Emélie Flemming-Parker

Emélie, five years have passed so fast it hardly seems possible that you are graduating from high school this year! We are so proud of you and all you have accomplished not only at Sacred Heart, but in all aspects of your life. You are a great person and we know you will do well in whatever you set your mind to attain. Remember to follow your heart and be true to yourself.

Much love Mom, Dad, Andrew, Cinder, Stellar, and Cali

To the 147th Graduating Class

As you leave here, you now enter a new phase of your life with Sacred Heart--as our most recent alumnae.

The Alumnae Association of The Sacred Heart School of Montreal offers you our heartfelt support and best wishes for success in all your future endeavours.

Congratulations!

Keira Kilmartin

We are very proud of you and how you have become a confident young lady. You have accomplished so much, not only in your studies, but also in all aspects of your life. You are a wonderful daughter, sister, and friend and we wish you the best of luck for the future.

Love, Mom, Dad, Caitlin and Meaghan

Tiffany Piergiovanni

To our Tiffany who never ceases to amaze us. The energy you have put in everything you have done at Sacred Heart and everything else, surpasses our expectations. You have become a responsible young woman.

We love you very much.
Love Mom, Dad, Silky, Lucky, and Baileys

Elizabeth Tomaras

"Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter, and those who matter won't mind." You have grown into a confident, independent, mature and lovely young woman and we are blessed and proud to call you our daughter. Our best wishes in your future studies. We will forever be by your side.

Love, Mom, Dad & John

Bianca Cuffaro

Congratulations on your graduation. To say that we are proud of you would be an understatement. We are proud of your determination... We are proud of your success... We are proud of you being accepted to Marianopolis... We are proud of you as a person... And we are so very proud to be your grandparents.
Love and God bless you,
Nana and PopPop.
